New CEO Appointed to Westwood Lodge and Lowell Treatment Center

[January 29, 2007] Westwood, MA: Sherri McKee has recently accepted a position as the new Chief Executive Officer (CEO)/Managing Director of Arbour Health System's Westwood Lodge and Lowell Treatment Center.

"I am pleased that Ms. McKee has joined Arbour Health System," says Gary Gilberti, Division Vice President, Universal Health Services and CEO, Arbour Health System. "She brings a great deal of both administrative and clinical expertise to the organization."

Prior to her move, Ms. McKee served as interim CEO and COO for Two Rivers Psychiatric Hospital located in Kansas City, MO and Timberlawn Mental Health System in Dallas, TX. Both are a part of Universal Health Services, the parent company of Westwood Lodge and Lowell Treatment Center. Ms. McKee also worked in several positions for Psychiatric Solutions, Inc at Mesilla Valley Hospital in Las Cruces, New Mexico, as Chief Operating Officer and Director, Business Development.

Mrs. McKee was a Doctoral Student in Clinical Psychology with an emphasis in clinical neuropsychology at The Florida State University. She received her Masters of Arts in Clinical/Community Psychology from the University of North Carolina at Charlotte.

Westwood Lodge is a 133-bed behavioral health facility that provides a wide range of inpatient and partial hospitalization services in a private community setting for children, adolescents and adults experiencing a variety of psychiatric illnesses and substance abuse disorders. Lowell Treatment Center, a satellite of Westwood Lodge, offers inpatient treatment for children and adolescents, partial hospitalization programs for adolescents and adults, and a Family Stabilization Team.
